My dear Friend.

My mother & I are very much obliged for thy very kind gift of "The Life of Brown" - it is very interesting & greatly in demand, so we are very glad to have it, on its own account & on thine our dear, kind friend. - I believe my sister & I intended to order two copies of the book, but it has been mismanaged. Perhaps she wrote the order in her letter to Sarah Pugh, while my account for it not having been properly attended to. - We should be very glad to have two copies if thou couldst send them at any convenient time, when there is an opportunity. - We can settle accounts afterwards. If Mrs. Child's life is out we should greatly like I have two copies of that life - indeed we should prefer having four of it, if we could, to two of each - Peter Hill Dr. Horn lent to me, so perhaps some time you cannot without much trouble find an opportunity. - I am very much obliged for thy valuable letter - I hope thy health is better than when thou wrote we should rejoice to know of thy <sup>physical</sup> well-being of all our friends - but this can not be attained in regard to health when there is so much overwork in the world, & we can only believe in implicit faith that the trial of my health is not in wisdom I have to perfect some designs that our greatest physical strengths could not achieve. -

I have good accounts of dear Mary Cottin. She is not very strong, but has better health than she had. -

With much affectionate remembrance from my mother & myself. I remain Thine very sincerely E. W. Johnson
